Girl Scout Cookie Sale Is Now in Second Period

If a little Brownie Scout in brown uniform or a full-fledged Girl Scout in a green uniform has not yet stopped at your house to take your order in the current Girl Scout Cookie Sale, there is still time to place it. A second order period, from February 28 to March 14 has been set, says Mrs. W. H. Keen Jr., chairman of the cookie sale committee.

"In the two weeks from February 28 to March 14, do telephone one of the Girl Scouts or troop leaders in your neighborhood, if no one has come to your house," she suggests. "Remember, the purpose of the cookie sale is to help the Girl Scouts buy their camp in Bucks County. And by ordering cookies you will be helping every Girl Scout in the county to have real camping experience of life-long value." Once the camp is bought and equipped, every Bucks County Girl Scout will be able to go to camp sometime in each year," it is stated.

If you wish very much to help the girls and do not know whom to call, a telephone call to Girl Scout headquarters, in Doylestown (Doyleys, 9461) will find someone able and willing to help you. The office will transmit your order to the troop nearest your home.

Upper Bucks Officials Confer With Commission

Planning and Zoning Problems Are Discussed at The Conference

DOYLESTOWN, Feb. 28 — At the invitation of the Bucks County Planning Commission, a number of local officials from Upper Bucks County met here on Wednesday.

A number of inquiries concerning planning and zoning problems from both official and unofficial sources had been received from six municipalities in this area. The Planning Commission had called a meeting of representatives from Hilltown, East and West Rockhill townships, Perkasee, Sellersville and Silverdale boroughs, to meet together to discuss joint solutions for various problems.

A number of aspects of zoning, building codes, subdivision controls, trash and garbage collection and disposal, street dedications, etc. were discussed.

Members of the commission staff, headed by Franklin C. Wood, Executive Director, pointed out the advantages of cooperative action (which is permitted by state legislation). Simon K. Moyer, Vice Chairman of the Bucks County Planning Commission and also Secretary of Silverdale Borough, emphasized the fact that joint action for planning, zoning, and many other problems would save the municipalities a good deal of money.

It was pointed out that the commission's technical advice and guidance was available to all townships and boroughs. However, the initiative in undertaking the necessary local planning and zoning studies was the responsibility of the municipalities themselves.

The consensus was that such a meeting was a good approach and that further action along this line should be considered by each of the townships and boroughs.

Besides Mr. Moyer and Mr. Wood, those present were: Elmer High, President of Hilltown Supervisors; Stanley I. Reichley, President of Perkasee Borough Council; Frank H. O'Rourke, Engineer of Perkasee and Sellersville; H. Franklin Moore, President of Pennridge Joint School District; Robert E. Pennington, Chairman of the Sellersville Borough Planning Commission; Rowland E. Becker, Secretary and member of the Board of West Rockhill Supervisors; and Robert M. ## Book Reviewer, Pianist Delight Club Members

Mrs. George H. Wells, Drexel Hill, Gives Story of "Silver Chalice"

The streets of Antioch, Ephesus, Jerusalem, Rome, and the countryside round about were made real as Joseph of Aramathia, Luke, John, Paul and others were brought to life in the story of "The Silver Chalice" here yesterday afternoon. The book by Thomas B. Costain was presented in capable manner by Mrs. George H. Wells, of Drexel Hill, when she appeared before Travel Club members in the club home.

Mrs. Wells has entertained the Bristol clubwomen previously, and she delighted yesterday with her presentation of the story which revolves about Basil of Antioch and his fashioning of a decorative casing for the Cup from which Jesus Christ drank at the Last Supper. The early years of Basil were traced as the story unfolded, his acceptance of Christianity, told, the culmination coming in his vision of the Christ.

Mrs. Wells was introduced by Mrs. James S. Douglass, chairman of the literature committee. Piano solos by Mrs. John M. Rogers, delighted the members. These were "Scotch Poem" (MacDowell), and "Puck" (Grieg).

Presiding during business meeting was the club president, Mrs. Robert D. Brooks. In charge of club minutes was Mrs. Frank S. Welk. The meeting opened with prayer by Mrs. George E. Boswell. An appeal for knitting of woolen garments and afghans for people of Korea was read by the president, members being invited to participate in the knitting. Donations of wool were offered by Mrs. David M. Sheerer, Jr.

Believes Truant Officer Is On the "Way Out"

Attendance is Better With Half-Day Sessions, It is Claimed

In the school districts of Lower Bucks County the "truant officer" is on his way out!

With all of the half-day sessions, crowded classrooms, teacher shortage, and long bus rides, the youngsters seem to be bearing the booming expansion of the area with more aplomb and indifference than one would be led to believe.

The report from school superintendents in all of the surrounding school districts is that the kids are still coming to school, just as they always did.

"They want to come to school where they have the association with other children of their own age," reports one district superintendent.

"Attendance is better with half day sessions than it was on full time," "Truancy is actually not keeping pace with other expansion," "Actually we have not had any noticeable change," are typical comments from school administrators.

Explanation of the major cause of truancy was given by one superintendent who stated, "Sometimes some parents have a tendency to allow children to stay at home when the excuse does not warrant it."

It is this tendency of Lower Bucks County school men to look toward the parent in the attempt to find that the cause of truancy that has spelled the doom of the "truant officer."

In his place have arisen the "home-school visitor" and the "attendance officer" whose duties are as much promoting good public relations between the home and the school as of enforcing the law in making arrests of attendance cases. "We want to eliminate the cause of truancy rather than just enforce the law after a truancy has occurred," stated one of the superintendents.

Cost to the area of "truancy officers" to keep attendance offenders at a minimum has been about $1500 per year. Their usual method of work has been to investigate a case after it is reported to them. Attendance officers and home school visitors may be a little more expensive but their work strikes at the core of the child's and the parent's problems, administrators indicate.

25 Gas Consumers of Fairless Hills Testify

One More Hearing Is Planned To Be Held Next Month

By International News Service PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 28 — One more hearing on proposed rate hike for users of gas-heat will be held during the next month at the Harrison building, according to John Riely attorney for the Consumers organization.

The delay in holding the last hearing before the case goes to the Public Utility Commission in Harrisburg for decision, is to allow gas company officials to prepare additional data for the commission.

Yesterday's hearing was marked by the attendance of twenty-five gas consumers from Fairless Hills to protest any rate hike. They brought with them petitions bearing 700 names from Fairless Hills and Upper Darby, protesting any rate increase. John Fullam, attorney for Fairless Hills consumers, presented the petitions to the hearing but their presentation was objected to by F. M. Hunter, gas company attorney.

Hunter said that only persons who were mentioned in the original complaint filed against the gas company were entitled to testify. He declared that a petition, "is not legal testimony because signatures have been informally solicited and the signers can not be cross-examined. There is no way of determining whether or not they are even aware of the proper rate increase proposed by the gas company."

NEWS OF THE LEVITTOWN COMMUNITY

"Delicate" is Name Given Favorite Chocolate Cake

Recipe Given Courier Readers by Mrs. John Dick, of Levittown

LEVITTOWN, Feb. 28.—Chocolate cake seems to be the favorite in Levittown, as indeed it is in most neighborhoods. So often when we ask for a favorite recipe, the home-maker produces her chocolate cake recipe. Here is one given us by Mrs. John Dick, 2 Greenbrook drive.

Delicate Chocolate Cake
¾ cup water
3 sq. (3oz.) unsweetened chocolate
1½ cups sugar
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups cake flour
3 tsps. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
½ cup shortening
3 eggs
½ cup milk
Combine water, chocolate and ¼ cup of the sugar in a saucepan. Cook over low heat until thick, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and cool to room temperature. Add vanilla. Sift flour, measure. Add baking powder and salt. Sift again. Cream shortening, add remaining sugar gradually. Cream until light and fluffy. Add well-beaten eggs (unbeaten if electric mixer is used), beat thoroughly. Add cooled chocolate mixture; beat until smooth. Add dry ingredients alternately with milk, stirring only enough after each addition to blend. Pour into two 8 or 9 inch pans at least 1½" deep. Bake 25 minutes at 350 degrees.
This is very good with cocoa chocolate icing or coffee icing.

During the trial Alphonso Hixon had said that Irving had had a switch-blade knife and shovel in his hand. Yesterday his brother demonstrated to the court how Irving had allegedly held the knife in one hand and the shovel in the other. He was the only one to corroborate his brother's story of the knife and the shovel.

Hixon is from Alabama. He has lived for nearly two years in Philadelphia, he was employed by a firm constructing a gas main system in lower Bucks county.

A series of Articles Introducing the New Residents of Levittown to The Community.

(By Staff Reporter)

The quietness of Levittown is a welcome change to Mrs. Andrew W. (Lorna) DeMaria, an English war bride, who once worked in munitions factories while German bombs and rockets flew over her head.

She is the wife of a former Army man, who met her in Chumford while preparing to invade occupied France with the 834th Engineers Aviation Battalion. Mr. DeMaria, a native of Brooklyn, N. Y., moved from there to 50 Black Pine lane, Feb. 17, with his wife and their children, Andrea, four, and Teddy, two. He works at the Fairless Steel Works as pump tender helper.

When they met, Mrs. DeMaria was operating a machine at the Hoffman Munition Works, in Chumford. She had been engaged in defense work since the age of 14 and had gone to Chumford from her home at Bexley Heath, where she had worked at a large arsenal.

After the Bexley Heath Arsenal received considerable bomb damage, was transferred to Chumford for safety, but the latter town proved to be worse. The Hoffman works were attacked by German robot bombs, which the English called "doodlebugs."

"We worked during the air raids," Mrs. DeMaria recalls, "until the doodlebugs were almost above us. Then we'd run to the cloak room and take shelter. The roof and one side of the factory were destroyed, and they covered them up with a tarpaulin."

"A lot of people were hurt in the raids," she says.
She and Mr. DeMaria were married March 9, 1944. Three months later, he left England to invade the continent, but returned to Chumford the day of their first anniversary. He returned to the States in October, 1945, and his wife was able to join him the following March.

Mrs. DeMaria's parents, Allen ("Teddy") and Naomi Jones, operate a carnival which travels all over England. They're now in Boston, England, doing winter repairs, but will be on the road again by Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. DeMaria enjoy dancing, and he used to play baseball with a team sponsored by the Brooklyn Gas Co., where he worked before moving here.

Paul F. Barnes, Philadelphia attorney for A. Dule Pyle, Inc., and the Highway Express Co., Inc., contended the railroads had not exhausted all means outside of court.

W. Russell Hoerner, Jr., counsel for the PUC, declared the railroads could have attacked the tariff filed in the complaint proceedings.

All-Star Game To Be Played On Court Here Monday Night

The first annual All-Star game of the Lower Bucks County League will be played Monday night on the Bristol High Court. An All-Star team, selected by the coaches of the circuit, will play Bristol High, the league champions.

There will also be a preliminary game, starting at seven o'clock. In this game, a second All-Star team will play Pennsbury High, runner-up of the circuit.

At its recent meeting, the coaches decided to give a percentage of the gate receipts to some Lower Bucks County charity organization. The Lower Bucks County Hospital, now being built on Bath Road, will receive a percentage of Monday night's receipts.

Officials, including referees, timers, and scorers, have agreed to donate their services to the games. Official scorers selected are Jack Leberger, of Morrisville, and Thomas Jano, Bristol.

The All-Star teams will wear white jerseys with their high school colored pants. Bristol and Pennsbury will wear their regular uniforms. The All-Star first team will be coached by Jack Mock, Morrisville, while the second team will be coached by Frank Jacobs, of Southampton.

The All-Star team to face Bristol includes: Ron Elliott and Russ Struble, Bensalem; Jim Bustran and Dick Smith, Delhaas; Charles Calabrese and Larry Wilcox, Morrisville; Al Hofmann and Don Seiz, Neshaminy; Charles Ford and Bill Daly, Southampton. It must be noted that this team will average 6 feet in height.

The second team will include: Al Dominiani and Bob Frantz, Bensalem; Nick Moran and Bob Morris, Delhaas; Frank Ponce and Harvey Powell, Morrisville; Ray Brodie and Tony Peale, Neshaminy; Ray Rechli and Ray Croft, Southampton.

Bristol will use its regular starting lineup of Bob Stroble, Fred Kornstedt, Harold Loud, Bob Braker and Frank Manzo. The Pennsbury starting five will be: Ray Bray, Tony Mazzeochi, Ted Marks, Jim MacMillan and Mike Baldovary.

Basketball Season Ends Here Tomorrow

The regular season of the Bristol Basketball League will close tomorrow afternoon with a double-header on the Rohm and Haas floor. In the opening game, starting at 1:30 o'clock, the Celtics will play Rohm and Haas while in the second encounter, Luciano Brothers play Hilltop A. C.

Rohm and Haas and the Celtics will be battling to decide second place. Both have won 8 and lost 3. The Celtics won a forfeited game from Pennell on Thursday night. Rohm and Haas beat Hilltop although the latter team used an ineligible player and forfeited the game.

The Luciano-Hilltop will be a hot affair. Luciano can tie Hilltop for fifth position if it beats the Toppers tomorrow. In that case, a playoff game will be necessary to decide which team enters the play-off quarter round.

Frank Thropp, Dick Anderson, Johnny Paone, Don Foti, and Fred Riccoista will start for Luciano with Roy Richmond, George Moylan, Jack Weaver, Bill Service and Franny Schade starting for Hilltop.

Bensalem Closes Season With Win Over Delhaas High

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Feb. 28 — Bensalem Township High closed its 1952-53 basketball campaign with a lop-sided win over Delhaas High on the Owls' floor. Final score was 72-54. The Owls finished the season with nine wins and 8 losses. Delhaas won 11 and lost 6.

The boys of Marlon VanHorn had an easy time from the start. They hopped to a 13-2 lead after the first four minutes of the tilt and at the quarter were ahead, 22-4. Coach VanHorn rested his regulars in the second quarter which saw Delhaas outscore the home boys, 15-10. However, in the third session, Bensalem piled up a 57-36 margin and coasted in the finale.

Ron Elliott and Russ Struble hit the double-figures for the winners, getting 20 and 17 points, respectively. Bob Morris and Jim Bustran were high for Delhaas with 16 and 15 points.

Bensalem also won the junior varsity tilt, scoring a 59-50. Norm Berger and John Perugini led the Junior Owls with 33 points between them. Jim Rapo and Joe Vennesh were high for Delhaas with 17 and 15 points.

who attended the sessions were decidedly against any rate rise. Said Mrs. Remwick Miller, 210 Coventry Rd., Fairless Hills, "any rate rise proposal is outlandish. We're already paying more for gas heat than any where else."

Mrs. Ralph Klein, Mrs. Ralph Ingerson and Mrs. George Dorland, all of Austin Drive, Fairless Hills, said, "Our bills are already too high. If another rate rise comes through we might just as well go ahead and change to oil heat."

Chairman of the Consumers Organization's Gas Protective Association, Lawrence Earle, whose father was Governor of Pennsylvania from 1935 to 1939 declared he was "totally amazed that with 178,000 families affected by any rate change, the company's attorney didn't want to hear what the individual consumer had to say."

Earle went on to say, "It's unrealistic not to allow affected parties to speak up."

He also thought that the "Philadelphia Electric Company should be forced to pay the going rate for the natural gas it gets so cheaply from its Gas Company."

The hearing was adjourned until a later date to be announced sometime during the coming week.

Bristol Swamps Bordentown High By Score 65 to 45

BORDENTOWN, Feb. 28 — Bristol High drew the lid on its regular season campaigning by swamping Bordentown High, 65-45, last night on the loser's court. Bristol ended its regular season with 16 wins and 6 losses.

The Warriors, however, will still be active in post-season games. They play the Lower Bucks County League All-Stars Monday night and on March 10th will be participating in the Class B, P. I. A. A. playoffs.

Coach Ben Watson did not use Bob Stroble, Bob Braker, Fred Kornstedt, or Frank Manzo in his starting lineup against Bordentown but the quintet he did start managed to rack up a 15-9 first quarter lead.

Stroble entered the tilt in the second quarter and immediately, the Bristol score went up. Bob connected with five double-deckers in this session and with the help of Harold Loud who scored three field goals upped the half-time lead to 36-21.

Stroble ended the contest with 12 fielders to give him 24 points for the night. Stroble's total points for the season amounted to 511 or better than 24 points per game. He set a new individual scoring record at Bristol High, the old record being 421 points scored by Johnny Pindar during the 1946-47 season.

Harold Loud scored 17 points in the game and also was the main cog in getting the rebounds off the boards.

The Bristol Junior Varsity lost a "sudden death" game to the Bordentown Junior Varsity, 61-59. Mercantini scored two fouls in the closing seconds of the second extra period to give the Jerseyites the victory.

Les Tusiano and Tom Brescia scored 13 points each for Bristol while Mercantini had 21 points for Bordentown.

staff in Harrisburg, pointed out important aspects of the study of Pennsylvania's municipal authorities which that division of the League has been working on for the Local Government Commission. Lewis emphasized that there is at present no central state government agency to which municipal authorities, other than water authorities, must report information for this study had to be gathered from each individual authority of which there are more than 500 in the state. Lewis said, "Until this information is compiled and studied, there is no basis for knowing what changes or improvements are needed in the state's authority laws."

League activity in the field of regional planning in southeastern Pennsylvania with particular emphasis on the work of the Montgomery County Branch of the League was reported. The planning manual prepared by the Montgomery Branch has had wide circulation in southeastern Pennsylvania and is being used as a guide by many area municipalities confronted with the necessity of providing planning programs.

League staff members attending the conference came from League Division offices at Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and Wilkes-Barre, and from League County Branch offices in Lower Bucks, Chester, Montgomery, Berks, Lancaster, Schuylkill, Luzerne, Lackawanna, and Dauphin.

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

BOTANISTS call them "dioscoria alata". Southerners call them "yams". However you say it, the tubers known popularly as sweet potatoes provide a wide variety of sweet eating. One of the simplest and best ways of serving them, suggests the A & P Service for Homemakers, is to stuff-and-bake them.

Five medium potatoes will yield four servings. Wash, dry and rub skins with a little shortening. Bake in a moderately hot oven (about 375 degrees F.) 45 minutes or until soft. Remove from oven and cut a slice from one end of each potato. Scoop out the centers, leaving a quarter-inch wall in four of the shells. From the fifth remove all the potato. Place the centers in a bowl and add two tablespoons of butter or margarine, one to two tablespoons of brown sugar and one-half teaspoon of salt. Mash until smooth. Add gradually, enough light cream or milk to moisten, and whip mixture until fluffy. Fill the four shells with the whipped potatoes. Brush tops with one tablespoon of melted butter and sprinkle with cinnamon or nutmeg. Return to oven and bake till tops are lightly browned.

This dish goes well with pork steaks or chops. Try cooking the pork chops with peppers and tomatoes for extra zest. Fry four and pork chops (about one and one-half pounds) slowly in large skillet until brown. Pour off fat. Sprinkle chops with salt and pepper. Add one-fourth cup of water; cover and simmer 15 minutes. Add four green peppers, quartered and two tomatoes cut in half. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Cover and simmer 10 minutes longer.

DIET NEEDS FOR ACTIVE STUDENTS

Health in later life greatly depends upon the kind of foundation built for it in youth. For this reason it is all important that your child's diet be well-balanced.

Basically, the child's daily diet should include these foods—meat, dairy products, eggs, vegetables, fruits and cereals, points out Reba Staggs, well-known home economist. A well-balanced diet means the proper proportion of each of these foods, giving the body its protein, energy foods, minerals, vitamins and bulk.

For instance, protein, of which meat is a leading source, is essential in everyone's diet for building the tissues of the body and keeping them in repair. Children especially need protein for growth. In addition, meat supplies minerals, energy value and certain vitamins.

A well rounded breakfast is essential for the active school youngster. This guards against that mid-morning slump. Bacon or other meats should be served. Whether your youngster carries his lunch or comes home, meat sandwiches are ideal. Remember, meats for youngster's dinner are best served plain, rather than in spicy, rich sauces.
